Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) over continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £100,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £816,070 is real and substantial property;" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, or Fire business was 90 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shows an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

The Royal Mail Steam Packet "Mersey," Ritchie Curlewis, Commander, will leave this port for Montevideo and Rio de Janeiro, on Saturday, 26th November. At Rio de Janeiro the Mersey will meet with and will transfer to one of the Company's Transatlantic Packets Passengers and Freight for the following Ports, viz., Bahia, Fernambuco, St. Vincent (Cape de Verd Islands), Lisbon, and Southampton.

Passengers by this vessel are requested to embark before Four p.m. on the above-named day, as the "Mersey" will leave the moment that the mails arrive on board.

For information as regards Rates of Passage, of Freights, &c., please apply at the Agency of the Company, 77 Calle 25 de Mayo.

ABRAHAM ROBINSON.

In consequence of recent arrangements, the "Mersey" will, henceforth, convey cargo to and from this port and the several ports of Brazil, at which the Company's steamers trade on the outward and homeward voyage.

Rams—Rams—Rams.

The undersigned, in calling attention to his large and superior stock of Rams and Breeding Sheep, begs to inform his Friends in the Camp that he has on hands a splendid collection of animals, from Three Hundred to Five Thousand Dollars, more, and is confident that each in its class will compete with anything in the province.

In the "Rambouillet type" will be found some fine specimens of the pure blood, besides crossings from the "Merino," possessing the size, shape, and length of staple for which this class is so much admired.

In the "Negrettes" he has also some beautiful animals of pure blood, as likewise the "Negrette" drawn from the fine Merino," a "Cria" remarkable for compact shape and close heavy wool.

In addition to the above he wishes to draw especial attention to his celebrated Argentine breed, between the "Rambouillet" and "Negrette Ewe," and which, after seven years' experience, he can fully recommend as combining size and shape with length and weight of wool—qualities so anxiously looked for by all experienced sheep-farmers, and which have given so much satisfaction to those who have already purchased of this class. In buying the above in half three-quarter, and pure blood, already acclimatized, there is an immense advantage, as Rams reared in this country are not so delicate and withstand the winter better than imported animals, besides being sold much cheaper, and only requiring ordinary care.

He can likewise supply the above classes in Ewes, either picked or by the hundred, and wishes to remark that all have been in prime condition throughout the past summer.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Among our new publications we have "El Grillo," a rival to our satirical colleague "El Mosquito." The 1st No. contains a tolerable caricature of the American prophet, Bilbao, but the execution of the engravings and general character of the "Grillo" are inferior to the "Mosquito." Don Manuel R. Tristany has favored us with a copy of his "Recuerdos y Fantasias," but as we know nothing of English versification, we may plead still more innocent of Spanish poetry.

To-morrow will be the festival of the chapel-of-ease called Santa Catalina, near the South Plaza. The Pope has presented to the shrine a relic of the holy virgin and martyr, which will be exhibited to the public.

Capt. Mansilla's new dramas of Atar-Gull and the Aunt seem to be in small demand, notwithstanding their flattering reception. They were published at 20$ m|c, and a lot is now offered at 2$ each.

Our packet edition will be published to-morrow morning; the Weekly of yesterday also contains all the latest news for transmission to England.

We regret to learn of another fatal occurrence among our countrymen in the camp. A man named Fagan of Villa Mercedes, challenged a neighbor to box him, and being worsted in the combat shot the other, next day when near his house; after which he tied a lasso to the corpse of his victim, and dragged it through the camp. Fagan is in prison, and his countrymen condemn the deed as one of the most treacherous and horrible yet enacted.

A collision is said to have taken place last week, on the Western Railway near Moron, which has been kept very secret, and is not mentioned even in the official journals. Two carriages were smashed, but luckily no one was injured, except a slight bruise in the arm sustained by one of the passengers.

A most scandalous case of Custom House imposition has recently come under our notice. A lady who left Buenos Ayres some months ago to travel in Europe, returned by the last packet: on her departure she took with her, her jewellery, which had been all bought in Calle Florida, Buenos Ayres. She travelled throughout England and France, and for aught we know, through all Germany, carrying with her, as all ladies do, her jewellery wherever she went. In none of those countries was she molested or annoyed because she had two diamond rings instead of one. When arriving in sweet Buenos Ayres, however, the jewellery was stopped, and will it be credited? although the ring and bracelet boxes had the name of the shopkeeper in this city who sold them, the Custom House authorities insisted upon the duties being paid. The victimized husband of the lady in question had to pay down three ounces to release his wife's trinkets from the grasp of the Custom House officers. We venture to say that since the creation of Custom Houses there never was known an instance of greater rapacity than this. If such a thing was attempted in England it would cause a greater noise than the Indian invasion in the provinces.

Our colleague, the 'Nacion' treats its readers with a long article about the Indians, and states that there are more soldiers on the frontier at present than ever on any previous occasion. This, if true, speaks badly for the efficiency of our troops, for with truth we may say that never before were the Indians so troublesome as at present. Our colleague in Rosario, 'El Cosmopolita', is furious with us for saying one word about the Indians. We commend to the attention of our readers a letter which we publish in another column.

The Government House, it appears, is crowded with bids, offers and proposals for the Western Railway, and, if we are to believe our morning colleagues, a society has been formed in Belgium which is about to send out an agent here in January to buy up the Government railway. It may be as our colleagues state, but we are inclined to think that there is some mistake, as there are other South American governments which have railways for sale and find a great difficulty in disposing of them.

There is now no longer any doubt as to the retreat of the Brazilians, even our colleagues in town admit it; and as for the blockade if it lasts any time it will cause a greater row up the rivers than what President Mitre imagines. Already one Englishman has come forward, and in the most emphatic manner protested against shutting up his saladero in Salto: in a few days some half dozen more will follow. Now is about the time when the saladeristas intended to commence working, but this nonsensical blockade puts a stop to everything. It is a gain, however, for Brazil, since the saladeros in the Rio Grande must do better business.

The steamer Uruguay, we hear, is about to change her route from Montevideo for Rosario: she is a very nice commodious steamer and very fast. Owing to the blockade in the Uruguay, we learn, the steamer Rio del Plata will not go up the Uruguay; she will ply between Buenos Ayres and Montevideo.

In consequence of the great increase of sickness about town, the Municipality has at last determined to do something: in each parish a committee will be named, whose duty it shall be to see that the house-holders keep their premises clean.

There has been a terrific fight between two boat owners in the river. What was the origin of the row we could not find out, but suppose the Enrique ran into the Vencedora, or vice-versa. However, the Captain of the Enrique took the law into his own hands, boarded the Vencedora in company with three men, but the Vencedora men were up and ready, a terrible fight ensued, and the captain of the Enrique not only got badly wounded, but was thrown overboard in the scrimmage; he was, luckily, picked up in time. The Captain of the Port has been investigating the matter.

The new decree of the Government extending the time for sub-tenants to claim their rights, will be found in another column.

The Pavon arrived yesterday and brought us our files from the interior: one of our Rosario colleagues states that as the gold in San Juan has to be dug for it is by no means so promising a business as people may think. There seems, therefore, to be no doubt about the gold, but only that it has to be cut out of the rocks, instead of merely picking it off the surface. We await a letter from our special correspondent, and advise our enterprizing countrymen to do the same; all parties may rest assured that if there is gold in San Juan, the "Standard" agent (who, apropos, is what Erin calls 'a canny Scot,') will tell the truth about it.

We are happy to assure our readers that in the south camps there has been an abundance of rain. From the north we have not heard yet.

A WORD ABOUT WOOL.

Our friends in the country pay so little attention to the fluctuation of specie, all their transactions being limited to paper money, that when they come to town to sell their wool they are astonished to find, whilst every other article of consumption has risen in price, wool is selling at the same figure as last year.

Yesterday morning we published a table showing the price of wool for the last four years in paper money, reducing same to specie, and also the value of ounces. That table is suggestive of many important facts, which in the bustle of every-day life escape public attention.

The paper money price of wool in our markets is the same this year as the last, but there is a wide difference in the value. Farmers got $95 per ar. in November, 1863, and they get $95 to-day also; yet there is a difference of almost a cent a pound between the $95 last year, and the $95 of to-day. The actual cost of shearing may possibly average the same this year as last, but cartage is higher, and twine and shears are dearer; and as there is no reciprocal advance in the price of wool, the farmer is a loser.

The wool crop in the River Plate, it must be borne in mind, is increasing enormously, and although the whole staple is but a trifle in the European markets, yet our farmers must bear in mind that the increase of wool and sheep in other countries is still more prodigious. It is difficult to say what the total consumption of wool throughout the world is, but it is easy to perceive that the supply is more than sufficient and that the only way to increase the demand is by reducing the cost of the raw article.

Many persons thought that, owing to the cotton famine, wool would come more generally into use, that the cotton manufacturers would suit their machinery for woollen fabrics, but the experience of the last few years has proved how fallacious this supposition was. No doubt the high price of cotton has assisted wool, but wool has not taken the place of cotton, nor ever will, no matter how cheap or abundant: and there is no greater proof of this than the table in question. Our wools sold in 1861, just after the commencement of the American war, at $3:23½ etc, per arroba, and to day they hardly bring $3.27 cts. If, therefore, the scarcity of cotton has failed to improve the value of wool, so likewise would the plethora of that staple consequent on a termination of the American struggle be unable to injure it. We offer these few remarks tn consequence of the general idea that the fall in the price of cotton must seriously affect wool.

Meanwhile, it behoves our farmers to go with the tide, and try, by every possible means, to produce their wool at the very lowest cost. The days are gone by, when a farmer can afford to pay exorbitant rents for 'puestos:' and when mestizona wool sells in the market within ten or twelve dollars of what the very finest mestiza fetches, we apprehend it is time to begin economising in the price of rams.

The foreign sheep farmers of Buenos Ayres have sunk their capital and their savings in improving the breed of sheep. In former years the wide difference in the price of common and good wool justified such expenditure, but it would appear that now-a-days course wool is positively scarcer than fine, and the common criolla flocks actually pay better than the finest mestiza. A subscriber from Magdalena informs us that a native sheep farmer in his district has sold his wool, which is a mixture of mestizon and criolla, at $80, deliverable at his house in the camp, whilst the Irish and Scotch farmers in the same neighborhood who own as good flocks as are in the country can at most only get $88 or $90: criolla and mestiza wool has therefore within the last five years risen one hundred per cent, whilst fine mestiza wool is almost at the same price.

Our readers should therefore open their eyes to two facts.—

1st. That the increase of wool throughout the world is so enormous, and that shortly the supply will be much greater than the demand.

2nd. That under these circumstances wool must be produced at the very lowest possible cost to be remunerative, and that where sheep and land are cheapest, there farmers can make the most money.

THE RECENT INDIAN FORAYS.

The "Cosmopolita," of Rosario, blames the "Standard" for mentioning the Indian invasions, and charges us with exaggerating the same, whereas we only copied from authentic sources; but the "Ferro-Carril" of Sunday gives some sad details, shewing that the worst is not yet known.

Don Augustin Pereyra writes from San Jeronimo, 17th inst., that a body of Indians, numbering 800 to 1,000 swept the whole of that department on Nov. the 7th for the distance of 14 to 16 leagues, coming within a mile (12 squares) of the town: they carried off 10 to 12 thousand horses and horned cattle, besides a quantity of sheep and pigs. They stocked all the houses and bullock-carts in their march, carrying off a number of Christian captives, but killing none. On the 12th inst. they made a second raid in the direction of Saladillo, and murdered all the peons of Zarate's convoy, whom they had tied down on the ground. They then attempted to recross the river with their booty, but the stream was so swollen that they had to take a route southwards. During the last few days, they have scoured the districts of Rio Cuarto, Achiras, Sauce, Chason, and Laguna Honda, and, in a word, the whole province of Cordoba. The troop of carts belonging to Sor. Paz was among those sacked, but the conductor, Bravo, contrived to make his escape.

Don Alexis Delgado writes from Saladillo, 18th inst. that on the 5th inst a band of Indians from Tres Cruces plundered the whole country and came so close to the town that the inhabitants fired at them. They carried off all the cattle north of the Arroyo and returned five days after to take the remainder including 200 head of oxen belonging to Sor Montenegro. The poor people being robbed of all their milch cows are reduced to misery, unless 3,000 head of cattle be sent to their relief. In Cordova things are even worse, Achiras, Reduccion and other places having been sacked. Ten corpses and four wounded persons have been picked up on the high-road, and the keepers of post-houses narrowly escaped into Lobaton, before the savages came up. Colonel Villar went out to fight them and captured 1000 animals, but the Indians carried off over 10,000 head, leaving the neighbors only a few stray calves: the soldiers were all afoot, and the Indians well mounted. There are no post-horses left between Frayle Muerto and Saladillo.

CAPTAIN HUNTER AND THE ROWDY.

The captain of the Esmeralda gives the following account of the disturbance caused on board his vessel at Esquina, by a disorderly fellow named Jorge Pintos, which we mentioned some days ago.

"In my last trip while at the port of Esquina, on the 27th ult. I was disturbed in my business by a loud noise and altercation attended with obscene and violent language between a passenger (apparently drunk) and the agent of the steamboat Co. There were about 30 persons on deck looking on, and I begged of the pasenger to moderate his expressions, as I could not allow such filthy epithets on board my vessel. The fellow (whose name I learn to be Jorge Pintos) then turned upon me and said he would shout as much as he pleased, with other insolent remarks which forced me to threaten to put him ashore. He grew then quite obstreperous, and when I went to remove him to the boat he tried to pull out a revolver which he carried in his belt. I briefly hinted to him "if you draw that shooter I will pitch you into the river." Just then the captain of the port, Sor. Gallardo, interfered, and begged me not to put the man ashore, as he would calm him down, to which I acceded.

"Mr. Jorge Pintos endeavored to get up a protest, but the passengers refused to have anything to do with him, or sign his paper. He then went to bed, slept soundly all day, and got up next morning quite refreshed and quiet: if he had done so in the beginning he would have saved me much trouble.

"Next week an article appeared in the 'Esperanza' of Goya, attacking my conduct in the matter, whereas Pintos had no one to blame but himself, and if anyone has reason to complain it is the captain or passengers who were forced to listen to such disgraceful language on the part of a man who seemed to have taken leave of his senses, and behaved himself like a rowdy."

EMIGRATION TO THE RIVER PLATE.

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen,

Bulwer one time wrote, that people who returned to England from Australia with fortunes, were generally looked upon with distrust, as their neighbors suspected the mode by which they had paid a visit to the Antipodes. The adjoined extract from the report of the trial of a boy for stealing (as it appeared in the London 'Times' of 17th of August, 1864) would lead one to suppose that if many of the 'beaks' hold the same opinion of this country as Commissioner Kerr does, this lovely land will soon see a new crop of laborers, laborers who, no doubt, grafting Cockney sharpness on to Gaucho villainy, will raise this country to the level of Botany Bay. Some time since you remarked that the River Plate provinces were not known in Great Britain, and this trial is a good example of the truth of your saying, for Mr. Commissioner Kerr is evidently laboring under the somewhat erroneous idea that La Plata is a land of liberated convicts.

I am sure that even you, anxious as you are for emigration, would not like to encourage the arrival of these gentry; and in the hope that the 'Standard' containing these remarks may fall into the hands of some of the magistracy of Great Britain, and cause them to alter their opinion of this as a penal settlement.

I remain, A LEG.

"The Commissioner—I see that you were convicted in February last; what was that for?

"Stewart—That was for stealing books.

"The Commissioner—And then you were committed again and again. [To the magistrates on the bench,] What can be done with a boy like this at the age of 13? To send him back to the reformatory would be useless. To do any good with him now seems hopeless. Perhaps if £2 or £3 had been expended upon his passage in the first instance to La Plata, he might have done some good for himself by following the trade he was taught in the reformatory."

THE SAN JUAN GOLD-FIELDS.

(from the 'Cosmopolita' of Rosario, 20th inst).

While the 'Standard' of Buenos Ayres was very rashly exaggerating the news of the discovery of gold at San Juan, the 'Cosmopolita' more prudently advised the public to wait for further particulars, which we have now the pleasure to communicate.

The gold recently discovered lies in beds of granite. The only quantities found on the surface were in fissures caused by an earthquake, many years ago, near Jachal, about 30 leagues NE. of the city of San Juan.

The mines of Castaños, where in reality a very rich vein of gold has lately been discovered, belong to Mr Rickard; but as he made the 'denuncia' or purchase only for silver mines, the discoverer of gold has (according to the old mining laws) the right to 'denounce' them on his own account as gold-mines.

But as the gold lies in beds and veins, much capital will be required in the working, and the speculation is attended with risk, since only one digger out of a hundred may find gold in his 'claim.' As we have before said, if the gold was found on the surface, there would be abundant occupation for hundreds, nay thousands of diggers, but as it is found in veins, the gains must be limited, and for the one who makes his fortune, a hundred will be beggared.

We have further to remark that it is not yet generally known in what kind of rock the gold is found. People are so ignorant of geology in San Juan that they cannot inform us for a certainty whether the gold is in granite or quartz. If the former, the precious metal must be scattered over a wide territory. If the latter, we can only expect a rich deposit in one given place, and not a grain of gold elsewhere.

NEW DECREE—PUBLIC LANDS.

The Government, re-considering the decree of the 15th November, respecting the public land law, has ordered and decreed as follows:—

1st. That the period allowed the tenants or sub-tenants of the Government lands, to avail themselves of their preferential right, which is granted them by said law, shall be, and is, extended for six months.

2nd. That during such period, the said tenants can present themselves, but the sale which they may effect shall not prejudice the rights of the sub-tenants.

3rd. That the proofs required by chapter C, of article 10, shall be interpreted so as not to preclude any other evidence available.

Let it be published.

SAAVEDRA,
PABLO CARDENAS,

TO NIGHTS BENEFIT.

We publish the following letter from a subscriber to remind our readers that the gentleman who lent so much assistance to our English Amateurs at their last performance, will take his benefit in the Victoria to-night. We have no doubt he will have a full house as the English public are greatly in debted to him:—

Do me the favor not to forget my orchestral friend Señor Muntaner who takes his benefit tomorrow night at the Victoria.

He gives an instrumental concert in addition to a comedy, and a new Zarzuela. If you wish to be technical, remind your readers that the Spanish Zarzuela is beginning to pass the Pyrenees, and is not, as most people who know the name at all think it is, a mere vaudeville or musical farce, but approaches very nearly the French opera comique. The principal living composers of this class of music in Spain are Gastambidi, Barbieri and Ariete. A Spanish Farzuela is about to be produced in Brussels, and we may some day hear the "Val d'Andorra" in London, where at present the general idea of Spanish music is limited to the "Cachucha" and morceaux for the guitar and castanets.

Yours truly

AN AMATEUR.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES.

ROSARIO.

The Governor of Sta, Fé has signed the contract with Messrs. Beare & Co. on the part of Messrs. Aird of London for lighting the city of Rosario with gas, to be completed within two years under a penalty of £2,000. The price of gas is to be £1 per thousand feet: the contract will be forwardod to London by this packet.

We have most flattering accounts from the colonies of Sta. Fé; the wheat crop is the largest ever grown in the Republic.

The condition of Rosario is said to be miserable, owing to the mud and politics: the street-paving being yet in embryo, we hear of a gentleman who had to be conveyed in a cart through the quagmire. Party feeling is running very high, and divided between three candidates for Governor: Sor. Oroño, D. Pascual Rosas, and Sor. Crespo. The banquet to Sor. Oroño took place at San Lorenzo on Sunday.

The emigration society of Rosario has sent for distribution in Europe 7,000 pamphlets in English, French, German, Italian and Spanish.

It is thought D. Patricio Cullen will resume the Government until the conclusion of his term of office.

D. Pascual Rosas arrived in Rosario on Thursday. The 'Rosario' relates an affray which took place at the Café Gigena on Saturday evening, between members of the rival Clubs: several shots were exchanged, and some persons wounded, and Major Rodriguez was stabbed near his own house on his way home.

COTTON-PLANTING IN PARANA.

Our friend, Mr. Forrest, has succeeded in establishing a first-class cotton-plantation at Paraná. We could wish that all the newspapers in the Republic would aid us to make known the fact that a North American citizen, recently arrived, boasts of a cotton farm similar in every respect to those in the Southern States, except that he has no slave-lebor. Mr. Forrest has 100 cuadras (over 300 acres) planted with cotton, which promises him a splendid harvest. In machinery and farming implements he has spent over 16,000 silver dollars: his steam-ploughing-machine travels at the rate of four miles an hour, making 12 furrows at once.

We congratulate Entre Rios on the acquisition of such men of capital and enterprise, but we are also proud to claim Mr. Forrest as a resident of Rosario.—El Cosmopolita.

MONTEVIDEO.

We have the 'Reforma' and 'Plata' to Tuesday morning. Coriolano Marquez has been set at liberty. Col Piriz is named commander of Salto, and the war office praises D. Leandro Gomez for his determination to hold out against the Brazilians.

On Saturday the Spanish shipping hoisted flags and fired salutes in honor of Queen Isabella's birthday. On Sunday the National Guard went through rifle-practice. Colonel Saavedra was despatched by Gen. Saa on the 15th to Las Mines to reconnoitre along with Col. Arias. At Sauce Solo they made an ambuscade and captured one rebel and 80 fat horses.

Two Italian war-steamers, Ercole and Veloce, had arrived at Pernambuca en route for Montevideo, at the departure of the last English mail.

The British war-steamer Satellite leaves for the Falkland Islands on the 23rd inst.

The 'Pais' gives the latest news of Flores, to the 14th inst. The rebel army, 700 strong, was encamped at Paso Pereyra on the Rio Negro. Caraballo, Manduca and Borjes crossed the Yi at Paso Rey on the 13th with 600 men, and Maximo Perez is near the Rio Negro with 150 men, making the whole rebel army 1,450 men.

The 'Plata' states that the Spanish fleet at the Chinchas, including Admiral MacMahon's reinforcements, counts 5 steam frigates and 2 steam corvettes, together mounting 212 guns. The Gerona, 50 guns, and steel-plated Numancia, will shortly be sent out to join the above.

LATEST NEWS OF FLORES.

The "Nacional" has the following news, which we give for what it is worth:

Leandro Gomes, being anxious to get out of Salto, and learning that the Colorado besiegers under Enrique Castro were moving off in the direction of Paysandú, sent a force under Lucas Piris to reconnoitre, but the latter came foul of the Colorados and a collision ensued in which the Blancos came off second best and fell back on Salto.

A letter from Mercedes, dated Saturday, 19th inst., confirms the surprise gained by the Government troops over the rebel garrison of Fray Bentos on the 13th, the latter being only 12, the former 100 in number. Only 5 Colorados escaped: Lieutenant Mendez fought retreating for 300 yards but was slain, as also Adjutant Saenz, Ensign Marmol, Sergeant Lizardo and three soldiers who, after being taken prisoners, had their throats cut. The Government troops then sacked several houses and made some plunder. But their leader, Enrique Olivera, has since been made to pay for these outrages, as I learn by a courier that he has been defeated by Enrique Castro, with the loss of 16 men killed, 8 taken prisoners, and 100 horses, saddles and stands of arms captured on the spot.

There is no news of the Brazilian army, and as rumor goes that it has retreated towards the frontier, it would seem really to fear the advance of the Paraguayans.

Private letters from the Argentine war vessels represent Paysandú and Salto as reduced to the last extremity by the Brazilian blockade and likely to be evacuated by their defenders, after which General Flores will march on Montevideo to give the coup de grace to the capital, and end the war.

IMPORTANT SALE.

To-day at 11 o'clock will be sold, by public auction, by Balcarce and Co., a piece of land, with one new room and two old ones, situated in Calle Garantias, No. 53, between Piedad and Cangallo, near Plaza Lorea. The streets are paved and lighted with gas.

CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY—WEEKLY REPORT TO NOVEMBER 19th.

In this week the British brigs Onward and Mosquito have discharged their cargoes of rails. The British brig Volante is coming up the river, and the brigs John Lawson and Mary have arrived in Montevideo with materials for the line.

The laying of the rails continues, and the 9th mile has been begun. There will be some delay in putting down the rails, owing to the want of sleepers, but the navvies' meantime will be employed in levelling the earthworks as far as the river Carcarañia.

A corps of workmen, with full supply of materials, has started for the Carcarañia, to build the station in that locality.

Next week we will give our readers a more detailed account. On the next arrival of vessels with materials, the works will be pushed forward with renewed vigor by the indefatigable Mr. Wheelwright—'Ferro-Carril.'

The business on 'Change to-day was very limited, and but for the purchase of 40,000 patacons by an English broker, there was nothing deserving particular attention. This sum it was said was bought for exportation.

About £190,000 sterling has been drawn for the packet up to the present.

Great complaints come to us about the recent change of interest by the River Plate Bank, but as we believe the manager of that institution knows his own business better than any one else, we cannot see what room there is for blaming Mr. Green for the measure. Money is very tight, and most people fear that it will be tighter still. A leading broker assures us that the mud in the plaza and rain in town keeps patacons high.

We call attention to a notice in another column inviting subscriptions to the stock of the new Mining Co. in San Juan; we fear that it is rather a bad season at present to introduce this affair.

The trade auction of English manufactures at Balbin and Plowes was poorly attended on Tuesday; yesterday some of the best buyers were present, but the prices offered for cotton goods were very poor.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

"As a sample of English clock-work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfectness or carefully adjusted mechanism."—Times, June 11 862.

"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph March 11 1862.

"A more splendid and exquisitely finished piece of mechanism we have never seen." Standard, June 17 1862.

"Some of them are of great beauty and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."—Times, June 23, 1862.

"Ranged around, the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection."—Illustrated London News, November 8, 1862.
